Conference on Occupational Health and Safety

Wednesday, 16th of December 2015

09.00 am – 05.00 pm

Ballroom A, Movenpick Hotel, Karachi

Foreword

Occupational health and safety (OHS) is concerned with the safety, health and welfare of people engaged at workplace. Its goal is to foster a safe and healthy workplace environment.

Workplace safety allows the industries to avoid accidents which often lead to financial losses in form of people losses, machinery downtime and fines from law enforcement agencies. Leading International Buyers are already linking their business placement with safe workplace conditions.

The conference highlights the benefits of occupational health and safety and shows entrepreneurs and managers practical approaches for improving conditions in industries.
