SUBJECT: KESCL NOTICE TO CONSUMERS.

Dear Sir,

We invite your kind attention that consequent to KESCL Notice to Consumers and disconnection of Power Supply and NEPRA Order directing KESCL to restore Power Supply to all such consumers whose connections were disconnected after issuance of the Notices, within a period of three days i.e. till 15th March, 2012, on demand by KESCL we have submitted an undertaking on Stamp Paper (Undertaking enclosed) after which KESCL has restored our power supply.

We seek your kind advice on the legality of the demand by KESCL of such undertaking already submitted by us.

Thanking you and looking forward to your advice on the above at the soonest.

With best regards,

Yours truly,

DRAFT OF LETTER TO BE ADDRESSED TO KESC BY SUCH MEMBERS WHO'S POWER SUPPLY HAS BEEN DISCONNECTED AND NOT YET RESTORED

To

The Chief Executive Officer,
Karachi Electricity Supply Company,
KESC House No. 39-B. Sunset Boulevard,
D.H.A. Phase II,
Karachi.

SUBJECT: RESTORATION OF OUR POWER SUPPLY AS PER NEPRA ORDER DATED 12TH MARCH, 2012.

Dear Sir,

Our power supply has been disconnected without any Notice.

However, NEPRA has issued Order dated 12th March, 2012 quoted hereunder:

"The KESCL shall not disconnect power supply to industrial consumers who have been issued notices of disconnection under section 20 of the Electricity Act 1910 read with chapters 8 & 14 of the Consumer Service Manual for under utilization of the sanctioned load. The Authority shall examine the legal status of these Notices separately, meanwhile the Authority directs KESCL to restore power supply to all such consumers whose connections were disconnected after issuance of the Notices within a period of three days i.e. till March 15, 2012 unless these consumers were either defaulters for payments of their electricity dues or were involved in the theft of electricity" (NEPRA Order enclosed).

Therefore in view of the above NEPRA Order, you are requested to restore our power connection immediately as our production and manufacturing activities are greatly suffering.

Thanking you,

With best regards,
