

Accordia Global Compliance Group presents WRAP's Fire Safety Training Course IN COLLABORATION WITH PHMA

WRAP is an independent, objective, non-profit team of global social compliance experts dedicated to promoting safe, lawful, humane and ethical manufacturing around the world through certification and education.

This fire safety training course is tailored to the specific risks and fire safety legislation and best practices in Pakistan.

The training will be conducted by Mr. Saifullah Khawaja,
Country Director, WRAP Bangladesh Liaison Office

The course will cover the following topics:

- A review of Pakistani fire safety laws
 - What is a fire?
 - Fire awareness
 - Combustion & fire spread
- Human behavior in a fire situation
 - The role of the fire warden
- Basic principles of risk assessment
- Routine fire prevention measures
 - Model of evacuation
- Fire safety features & facilities
 - Fire drills & pre-planning
 - Fire fighting equipment
- Practical fire-fighting session
- 5 Step Risk Assessment Process

On completion of training, certificate of attendance will be provide to the participants.

Date : Wednesday 19th December, 2012
 Duration : 9am to 4pm
 Venue : PHMA Conference Hall,
 PHMA House: 37-H, Block-6, P.E.C.H.S., Karachi.
 Fees : Rs. 15,000/

For details & information contact: Mr. Amjad Usman
 Phone: 34522769 (Ext 110) Mobile: 0323-2234900
 Email: info@phmaonline.com, ds@phmaonline.com